Johnson's indictment was the result of charges that he paid the railroad fare of a woman from Pittsburgh to Chicago and he was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary and fined $1000.

Jugo-Slavs Refuse to Accept of Compromise

PARIS, Jan. 29.—The text of the Jugo-Slav reply to the allied ultimatum on the Adriatic question, made public today, shows, as was stated yesterday, that it amounted to a refusal to accept the compromise offered by the Italians, but that in courteous terms it asked permission to lay before the powers some suggestions for alterations which it considers necessary to secure stability in the region surrounding the Adriatic.

As regards the proposal itself, says one paragraph of the note, the royal government is obliged to observe that it cannot accept it in its entirety and the government counts on the spirit of justice and equity of the powers' reply to the communication of January 29 to permit it to submit to them modifications imposed by the necessity of assuring peace in the Adriatic.
